Oh, I forgot to mention that if you go to the savvy luminary.com forward slash Written in the Stars, and you read up on my four week intensive star powered if you decide to buy steier parrot before August 8, I will throw in written in the stars for you for absolutely free. Okay, let's dive into the August highlights for the business star cast. So August is going to feel a whole lot more mellow than intense July July. I don't know about you. But July was really intense for me even though I've been in Hawaii and you know, visiting family. It hasn't exactly been a vacation. I have a lot of family obligations. And there's just so many opposition's in July, just a lot of tense cosmic things. It was very emotional. But in August, we get to lighten up a little bit. And for a luminaries here, I'm calling August's theme, igniting passionate confidence. We're still going to be in Leo season, and we're going to be diving into Virgo. And so we're going to be able to turn our passion into creativity, practical creativity with Virgo. So Home is where the heart is. I know you've heard this proverb before. We use it to express that no matter who we are, we feel the most strongly when we are at home, in a modern world gets a laptop Stiles, like, yes, I'm here in Hawaii working. What does this mean to have our hearts at home? The way I see it is that through astrology and your business, having your heart at home is having the strength and courage to do your soul's work with heart-centered passion. For a spiritually centered entrepreneur. In my view, this is a passion-led business. So maybe we change the proverb to purpose is where the heart leaves. You might have heard me talk about our kind of spiritual or entrepreneurial journey as a spiritual path. And so all of this to me comes together in August. So in August, we're gonna have five planets in their home signs where their heart is giving them quiet strength at their highest potential from being in their home sign. So the sun, our vibrancy and our willpower. Our creativity is in Leo now through August 22. And then Mercury, our understanding will be in its home sign of Virgo between August 11 and 29th. Venus, our ability to connect and unite to the people and the resources we need to thrive. She is going to be in her home sign of Libra. Starting in August, August 15, Saturn retrograde, our mastery and discipline is in its traditional home sign of Aquarius all month. And of course, Pisces in retrograde, which is our unity is in his home sign of Neptune all month. So in August, that energy is really going to support you to go even deeper with what you are truly passionate about, and how to organize it into service to others in your work and your purpose. The energy of the month is going to help you organize. So how are you meant to effectively serve that's the all that Virgo energy that's coming up. And the types of relationships you value. That's Venus in Libra. And the shared idea is that you're going to connect over and that's Mercury in Libra as Mercury moves into Libra after Virgo. This is going to feel so supportive and expansive, especially again compared to the opposition's of July. Some much needed heart-centered energy. So in August we are going to see Mercury entering its home sign of Virgo through August 11. Oh, that's excuse me that's on August 11. Venus entering her home sign of Libra on August 15. Uranus will be beginning its annual retrograde cycles so we'll be feeling that kind of shift of gears right when Iran is taking a step on the brakes. And then the sun will be entering Virgo on August 22 and Mercury entering Libra on August 29. We have two lunations this month in August. We have our new moon at Leo 16 degrees on August 8 and then we have our second Aquarius full moon. We had another Aquarius full moon in July at Aquarius of 29 degrees on August 22. Remember, these are Cosmic collective energies available to us all and there's nothing to be fearful of. I'd like to give this information to you so you can get curious about what you need to learn and what these energies feel like for you and your business. For larger shifts, you're going to feel the energy maybe a week leading up to a week leading away from and of course, you always hear me giving you the degrees. And this is so that you can personalize the energies in your own charts. Again, with conjunctions and meanings or Lunar activations, right, give your degrees look to the degree of activation and find where that degree lives on your natal chart. And the astrological house in which that degree occurs is where in your business or your life, More information is available for that cosmic shift. With those personalization of energies, if you need a little bit of help, this is the perfect time because I'm, again offering Written in the

Stars, and it's gonna teach you how to personalize all of these meetings and activations in an empowering way. So again, if you're interested in in that live course Written in the Stars, we are starting on August 16, through the 20th, head over to the savvy luminary.com. forward slash Written in the Stars. All one word to sign up. All right, let's dive into the details of the week, August 1 through seventh 2021. The theme of this week is eye on the prize. I have a quote for this week to keep your eye on the prize from the genius and a very spiritual scientist Albert Einstein. He says success comes from curiosity, concentration, perseverance, and self criticism. Yes, that self critic criticism, I think self criticism to Saturn especially if you have Saturn in the first house that self doubt that self criticism is allowed. But this quote is so important because this week could be emotionally scattered from passionate about your innovations to questioning your brilliance. Both confidence, focus, bliss, and fearful sticky doubt, have energetic insight for you in your business. get curious with what these wavering emotions are keying in for you. If you're feeling stuck in doubt, get curious with what that doubt is asking you to do better. dig into that self doubt that self criticism that Albert Einstein says and analyze its message and its meaning. This is your key to the mastery that you seek that success that you love, but you're aiming for. Your perseverance could open up to two breakthroughs that happen when you dedicate yourself to work through a creative obstacle or restriction. Meaning don't give up. Now there's a balance between powering through and discipline and giving up so find that happy balance for you where you're working through creative obstacles and restrictions instead of just throwing in the towel. Now if you happen to be feeling laser focused, keep your eye on the prize and get curious with what is enabling your focus. So you can harness that passionate focus again and repeat it in the future. There are a lot of keys for you this week. Why keeping your eye on the prize. So August 1, we have kind of a big day with the sun that Cassini mercury meaning the sun conjunct mercury opposite Saturn today, a trifacta of creative vibrancy, communications and focus. So August 1 marked on your calendar because it's a great day to crystallize creative projects and communications. Today is a combination of three exact transits happening as a whole over the course of a few days. This is going to feel like a time when you feel completely stuck or in doubt, or laser focus in your energy. Or you might actually waver between both that is completely likely. So the sun will be meaning mercury at exactly 7:08am pm pacific 10:08am. Eastern on August 1, where the theme of this particular aspect the sun and Mercury is clear, passionate consciousness. What creative aligned action can you express now that your heart and mind are aligned? mercury the messenger is never more than a sign away from the sun, our consciousness and today Mercury is in the heart of the sun, a complete alignment of our souls consciousness and the ability to communicate that consciousness so please communicate your passions. Look to your chart at that meeting point of Leo of nine degrees. And if you have any Natal planets or angles in fixed signs, Leo Scorpio Aquarius and Taurus these energies will add to your creative passionate fuel. If you have Natal planets, or angles in fire sign Leo Sagittarius and Aries around nine degrees these energies will support your creative communications again sun and Mercury leading up exactly at Leo nine degrees. Later on that day Mercury is going to oppose Saturn retrograde at 2:50pm Pacific 5:50pm. Eastern, where the theme is communications and mastery is your pursuit of sounding smart and impeding your natural ability to concentrate. So this is where we start to waver. Now we have Saturday in there. This is a great aspect to focus and concentrate on any intellectual or writing project. yet be aware with Saturn that discipline can sometimes go too far and make you doubt yourself. Be sure to stay balanced with your drives and focus on your goals. If that creeps in, thank you for reminding you to do your best, but let it go. So it doesn't take energy away by overthinking do not overthink it. If you have lots of fixed energy Taurus Leo Scorpio Aquarius, you will feel this need for mastery more intensely. Mercury is at Leo 10 degrees opposite Saturn retrograde at Aquarius of 10 degrees. And later on that day is still in August 1. Now the sun will be exactly the opposite Saturn retrograde so you see how all of these three energies are really working together for the entire day for about a day before and update after. We're now sun opposite Saturn. This happens exactly 11:14pm Pacific to 14 am the next day Eastern where this theme is persevere self criticism. What can you passionately do to keep going your creative vibrancy and will your son may be afflicted by feelings of doubt Saturn. It may feel like just as you're getting somewhere with your business creative projects that your passion has fizzled be aware of this feeling as in a few days it's going to be gone. Instead harness this Saturnian criticism and see it as encouragement to double down and dedicate yourself to the brilliance of what you do in your business. That's fun your son's doing. It is through focusing on the creation and keeping your eye on your long goal that you can build confidence and harness this energy. Keep going. If you have lots of fixed energy, Taurus, Leo Scorpio and Aquarius you are going to feel this need for mastery more intensely. sun's going to be at Leo of 10 degrees opposite Saturn retrograde in Aquarius at 10 degrees. On August 2 we have beautiful Venus training Uranus at exactly 11:53pm Pacific 2:53am the next day Eastern where the theme for this Trine is surprise opportunities open. What social opportunities can you enthusiastically say yes to relationships and many matter in your business and Venus has the energy to attract your ideal customers and resources. Surprising opportunities through relationships or resources can happen for a few days leading up to an hour away from this exact meeting point. Be open to meeting new people and invitations. Surprise opportunities are on the horizon. If you had lots of earth energy, Taurus, Virgo and Capricorn you will hear the opportunity and knocking even more loudly Listen up, you've got to open that door for opportunities to happen. Venus at Virgo 14 degrees training Iran is a Taurus at 14 degrees. Next day August 3, we have mercury squaring off with your with Uranus that happens at exactly 6:57pm Pacific 9:57pm. Eastern, where the theme for this meetup is a revolutionary communications. What downloads and heartfelt understanding are you receiving today, you may receive some announcements or pieces of data that rock your world in unexpected ways. This new information gives you another perspective of what the future could look like for you and your business. You may be disbelieving at the moment but give it time in a few days. You can see how this missing piece is what you've been looking for. Now this is a great day it for certain things but not a good day to send out your communications just yet. Your energy may not be the most aligned today. So just wait to share information. If you have lots of fixed energy, Taurus, Leo Scorpio and Aquarius, you are going to feel this more intensely. Mercury is at Leo 14 degrees squaring off with Uranus at Taurus a 14 degrees. And our last major transit for this week happens on August 6. We're now the sun squares off if you're honest, this happens at exactly 4:57pm Pacific 7:57pm. Eastern where creative breakthroughs is the theme, what influences leap you onto a different creative track, your will is strong. This is the energy that you need to work the creative blocks and persist. You're so close to a break. You do not let the feelings of restriction stop you now, any resistance you're feeling is proof that you are close, creative brilliance on the horizon. You got this. If you have lots of fixed energy, Taurus, Leo Scorpio and Aquarius, you must persevere for your creativity more. The sun is at Leo 14 degrees squaring off. Iran is at Taurus of 14 degrees. All right, luminaries, that's all I have for you right now. Have a beautiful week. And if you're interested in joining me for Written in the Stars, please sign up at the savvy.luminary.com forward slash Written in the Stars, and that all of your business besties know, I'm super excited to teach this program again, we'll be learning all you need to know about all of the archetypes how to reach your highest potential, how to read your natal chart and all the symbols all the degrees 360 degrees, the houses in your chart so you can see where in your life and your business you're being impacted by the cosmic energies at play.
